Part 1

VOICE REVIEW

The article below discusses body language. Before you read the entire article, I want you to read the section over Voice. Write down the three components that the author discusses in regard to voice only.

Let's put that into practice by reading a children's book to the class. Take some time to prepare. Read that book to a partner for suggestions. Then, read the book to the class.

Part 2

Read the rest of the article and briefly describe the "Three Powerful Keys" below:

Part 3

Watch the following video. Giving specific details evaluate the voice and body language.

Part 4

Now let's practice!

1. Write down one of your favorite family stories with the iPad or pen/paper. We all have at least one.
2. Reread the story and add notes where you can use effective body language
3. Practice the story until you can perform it without reading from the paper
4. Have a partner record you for improvement
5. Practice
6. Perform
